THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 27.

Waiting for His Innings. Murat Halstead sat on one of the settees along the corridor of the Fifth Avenue the other night chatting with John S. Wise, and as I passed them by the thought ran through my mind that here by the thought ran through my mind that here were two men of strong individuality, enquestioned talent and brainy resources, each of whom had left his impresson the country's affire, yet both of whom were coday feeling the grawing paugs of man's ingratitude to man. Both have left the places in which they gained fame, and have settled down amons us now to reap a golden harvest. It is protty well determined, I am told, that Halstead will never again direct the editorial policy of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, and I doubt whether 'e will ever return to that city as an actual resident.

doabt whether 'e will ever return to that city as an actual resident.

John Wiss gives premise of better results in the race for wealth there two men are running here, for he has twenty-odd years the better of the Cincinnati editor, and is following a more profitable calling than jou nalism—the law. He stready has a paying practice, and I am bold that it is growing rapidly; but although he lives among us his heart is in the Old Dominion, as is also his burning desire to get even with Mahone. That is one of the things he lives for, and probably the sole reason why he runs down to Virginia at convention times and on election day. Wise hopes to get his innings soon, and if he does the little General will have a hard time getting to the front again—N. Y. Star.

Consumption Cured.

THE JUDGE OF HANOVER COUNTY SPEAKS. Tim. Howard suffered for three years with lung and throat troubles, and last spring was thought by his neighbors to b. lying. I heard of his condition and gave him A. B. C. Tonic. Its effect was magical. In a very short time he was able to leave his bed, and now regards himself a well man. Lead Polson Cured. I am a painter by trade. Three years ago I had a bad case of Lead Poison, caused by using paint. I was cured in a short time by S. S. S. The medicine drove the poison out through the pores of the skin. My system was so saturated with poison that my underclothes were colored by the paint being worked out by the medicine through the pores of my skin. I was cured entirely by S. S.
